Intro and 3 Private lessons

Private lessons are the ideal surrounding for a beginning rider to become familiar with the intricacies of the motorcycle and its operation. Taught at several locations, private lessons are a one on one experience between student and experienced instructor. Priced at $75 for 45 minutes, packages are also available. There are no limits to how many lessons that can be taken and they provide a great stepping stone for those that are interested in obtaining a motorcycle license. As the student is actually on a motorcycle during the private lesson, confidence is built up providing a strong foundation for the beginning rider. For those students who would prefer to become familiar with motorcycling without leaving the classroom, Trama's also offers the Introduction to Motorcycles.
